

Overview exceptions in connection with change of law

Exeption	Example	The exeption is not applicable to:
Equipment that is designed to leave the atmosphere.
Large, non-movable industrial tools.	CNC machining center, industrial placement machine (eg SMD), fixed industrial drilling, milling or grinding machine.	Machine for mixing dough at professional bakeries that can be moved, cement mill
Large fixed installations, with the exception of equipment that is not specifically designed for and installed as part of such installations.	Oil platforms, baggage transport systems at airports, elevators, conveyor belt, production lines, automatic storage (warehouse) systems. Please note, large fixed installations must comply with a number of conditions described in the law in order to fall outside the scope of the Regulation. If you place large fixed installations on the Dutch market, we request you to contact us to determine whether your product may fall outside the scope.	Lamppost, stadium lamp screwed to a post, TV set mounted on the wall, bridge-type milling and drilling machines, metal forming presses, test equipment
Means of transport for persons or goods	Trucks, trains, boats, planes, cars, motorcycles.	Electric two-wheelers without type approval such as e-bikes, electric rollers, electric toy car that can transport one or two children
Non-road mobile machinery made available exclusively for professional use .	Forklift truck, manned electric lawn mower, street sweepers, mobile cranes. Please note that this only concerns mobile machines for professional use.
Equipment that is designed exclusively for	This concerns equipment that does not follow a regular waste stream, has an interest in research and development purposes and that is only made available by another company to another company (B2B).	being kept secret and is tailor-made for a specific customer or small number of customers involved in scientific research or the development of prototype products.

Medical devices and in vitro diagnostic medical devices, where these devices are expected to be infectious before the end of their lifespan, and active implantable medical devices.	Electrodes placed on the body, pacemakers.	Automatic insulin control and infusion device with a valve, where the device itself is not expected to be infected, electric toothbrush, thermometer, electric shaver, sex toys

Disclaimer: No rights can be derived from the information in this document. Wecycle cannot be held liable for any damage caused from inaccuracies or omissions in the information in this document.